Madam, All Petticoats Are NOT Alike!

Before you buy another Petticoat make these comparisons!

Compare the Waistband!

Only in the EPPO PETTICOATS will you find the elastic so inserted that it draws all the fullness and gathers to the back, leaving the hips and front fit perfectly smooth. The elastic is sewed through and through in such a way that you cannot stretch it to more than one-fourth its total length. All other elastic waistbands must "go dead." Only the EPPO waistband maintains its elasticity for years.

The elastic is so inserted that it brings all the fullness and gathers to the back, leaving the hips and front fit perfectly smooth.

Look at the Bottom!

The braid-protected bottom, which is exclusively an EPPO feature, will meet with your approval. No danger of the edge of your petticoat becoming worn or ragged while the rest of the garment is perfectly good.

EPPO Petticoats

Fasten Conveniently

in the front on the side with two glove fasteners. The placket is closed with glove fasteners to prevent gaping and lumps.

TRY ON AN EPPO—see how beautifully it fits and let the expert attendant show in detail why the EPPO Petticoat wears longer and fits better than any other.

Look for the EPPO label sewn in the waistband. A good assortment of extra sizes. EPPOS are made in best quality taffeta, jersey top, all jersey, messaline and cottons.
